About Every Child Pediatrics

Every Child Pediatrics (ECP) is a nonprofit healthcare organization dedicated to ensuring that every child has access to high-quality, comprehensive pediatric care, regardless of their circumstance, insurance status or ability to pay. For 30 years, ECP has been a trusted Medical Home for families across Colorado, providing primary care and integrated services including integrated behavioral and mental health, Medicaid enrollment and insurance support, preventative dental, food access and nutrition guidance, care navigation and referral coordination, and support with social determinants of health including food, clothing, housing, and transportation.

ECP serves children who are often uninsured or underinsured and face systemic barriers to care. Our mission is rooted in health equity, prevention, and long-term outcomes—meeting families where they are and walking alongside them as partners in their children's health and development.

Today, Every Child Pediatrics delivers care across a robust and innovative network that reflects this commitment. ECP operates four flagship clinics, eight school-based health centers, a dedicated clinic for unhoused teens at Urban Peak, and a first-in-the-nation clinic located inside a shelter for unhoused families at Samaritan House in downtown Denver—ensuring children receive care in the places where access matters most.

Celebrating 30 Years of Mission & Impact

The 30th Anniversary Celebration marks three decades of unwavering commitment to children and families who need care the most. Since its founding, Every Child Pediatrics has grown from a single clinic into a nationally recognized model for integrated pediatric care.

This milestone event is both a celebration and a call to action—honoring the past while investing boldly in the future of pediatric care for uninsured and underserved children.
